NEW PETER PAN TRIED OUT.

Shows Splendid Speed.

The latest Peter Pan, known as Peter The latest Peter Fan, known as Feter Pan VII. and owned jointly by James Simpson and J. P. Bickell of Toronto, has been launched and tried and did well. She was tried out on Friday and showed some remarkable speed. She was not let out, but with her throttle tree thing ones he showed 54 wiles an was not let out, but with her throttle two-thirds open she showed 54 miles an hour, and her owners are satisfied that when everything is running smoothly she will be a mile a minute boat.

This Peter Pan is 26 feet long 8 feet beam and is driven by two eight sylinder Sterling motors of 275 horse-power each, which drive twin screws. She is a hydroplane built from designs by G. F. Grouch by the Reliance Motor Boat Company, and as the Peter Pan family has a reputation for high speed there is no reason to think that the latest member of that famous family will not live up to the family traditions. up to the family traditions.
